ENJOY...Sydney's Best Noodles in a Box

If you've already visited one of our Wok on Inn restaurants, you'll probably know what to expect from our restaurants. If this is all new to you, then we hope that you enjoy your visit to Wok on Inn. Our first Wok on Inn noodle bar opened in 1997, in Balmain and has been serving noodles ever since. We are also located at The Rocks, Darling Harbour and Darlinghurst. Our concept is to let you the customer build your own noodle dish, either Thai, Malay or Chinese style, choosing your noodle and favourite ingredients. We serve our take-out noodles in eco-friendly noodle boxes and paper bags. Our philosophy hasn't changed over the years. It's simply "to serve fresh and nutritious food, cooked fresh to order, providing helpful, friendly service and value for money".
